

How to conduct a better interview to identify Elder Abuse and Undue Influence

Speaker: David Knitter

Speaker Bio: Attorney David G. Knitter is a principal in the law firm of Knitter & Knitter, LLP, named Solano County Law Firm of The Year for 2009 by the Solano County Bar Association (SCBA). He was honored as Attorney of the Year in 2006 by the SCBA. Mr. Knitter has presented locally and nationally for organizations including California Continuing Education of the Bar, the California Administrative Office of the Courts, Elder Financial Protection Network, and local bar associations, civic and professional groups. In November 2009, Knitter participated in a statewide training of California Court Investigators and presented on the subject of undue influence and elder abuse. His over 20 years of litigation expertise includes financial elder abuse, trust and probate litigation and conservatorships. An advocate of elder rights and protection, Knitter was honored by the State of California and other political bodies for founding Solano FAST, a multidisciplinary team of private and public sector professionals formed to combat elder abuse. Knitter is a former member of the NAELA Advocacy and Litigation Committee qualified for inclusion in the experience registry in several areas.