

Life Care Planning Alternatives - Different Ways To Achieve An Interdisciplinary Approach to Chronic Health Care Needs

Speakers: Rajiv Nagaich, Peter C. Sisson and Tim Takacs, CELA

Speaker Bio: Rajiv Nagaich, JD, LL.M., is an attorney licensed to practice in the State of Washington. He is a 2002 graduate of Seattle University Law School, where he graduated cum laude and has been an adjunct professor of law at Seattle University. Currently he hosts a weekly radio show dedicated to the needs of those aspiring towards successful aging and those struggling with the issue. Rajiv is a past President of Life Care Planning Law Firms Association, a board member at NAELA and is recognized nationally for his work with seniors. He received a bachelor's Degree from India, his J.D. from Seattle University and LL.M. from University of Washington. Rajiv also sits on the Senior PAC board and is the President of Washington Elder Care, a local nonprofit organization dedicated to address the needs of seniors.

Peter C. Sisson, CELA, is a principal in the Boise, Idaho law firm, Sisson & Sisson, The Elder Law Firm, PLLC. He has been a practicing lawyer since 1988. Pete's law practice includes: Medicaid and VA Benefits planning, Elder Care focused Estate Planning, Asset Protection Planning, Special Needs Trust Planning, Guardianships, Conservatorships, and Probate & Trust Administration. Pete is also the principal in The Care Management Team, LLC, a professional geriatric care management company.

Tim Takacs, CELA, has been in private practice in the Nashville area since 1980. He is the architect of the "Life Care Planning" approach to elder law which features a team of attorneys, care coordinators, insurance experts, and others who work together to help families deal with challenges created by long life and disability. He is a graduate of the University Of Notre Dame and the Vanderbilt University School of Law. He is a Certified Elder Law Attorney and Certified Elder Law Specialist. He is a charter member and first chairperson of the Tennessee Bar Association's Elder Law Section. He has been a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys since 1991 a member of NAELA board of directors. He is a charter member of the Special Needs Alliance, a network of the country's leading disability lawyers.