

Case Law Update with Four NAELA Presidents

Speakers: Ed Boyer, CAP, Rebecca Morgan, Craig C. Reaves, CELA, Vincent Russo, CELA, CAP

Speaker Bio: Edwin M. Boyer is a Florida Bar Board Certified Elder Law Attorney and a member of the law firm of Boyer & Jackson, P.A. Mr. Boyer is President of NAELA, a Fellow in the Academy and CAP member. He has actively served in leadership roles for the State of Florida at the Governor and Attorney General Levels as well as Co-Chair of the Florida Department of Children and Families Adult Protection Services. He presently serves on the Department of Children and Families Select Advisory Panel for Adult Protective Services and is a board member of the Alzheimer's Association of Southwest Florida. Mr. Boyer is a co-author of a book, and published author of many articles and speaks frequently on Elder Law issues. He is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Stetson University College of Law. Mr. Boyer has also been awarded numerous awards including the William Reese Smith Jr. Award for public service, Florida Bar Pro Bono Service Award, Distinguished Fellow from the Canadian Center of Elder Law, FL Lt. Governor's Task Force on Long Term Care and NAELA's President's Recognition Award in 2004.

Rebecca Morgan is a past president of NAELA and co-author of several books for LexisNexis. She is a member of CAP, a NAELA fellow, and an academic fellow of ACTEC. She teaches at Stetson University College of Law, where she is the Boston Asset Management Chair in Elder Law and the Director of the LL.M. in Elder Law. She is a frequent speaker on elder and special needs law topics. As a faculty member, she is always examining new cases in elder and special needs law.

Craig Reaves is a past president of NAELA, the co-author of Fundamentals of Special Needs Trust Administration, a member of CAP, a CELA, a NAELA Fellow and a Fellow of ACTEC. He is licensed to practice in Kansas and Missouri. He is an adjunct professor at both the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law and also at the University Of Kansas School Of Law, teaching elder law. He is a member of the Special Needs Alliance. He is a frequent speaker on elder and special needs law topics.

Vincent Russo is a past president of NAELA, the co-author of New York Elder Law Practice, a co-founder of the Academy of Special Needs Planners and one of the four principals of Elder Counsel. He is a member of CAP, a CELA and a NAELA fellow. He is the managing shareholder of Vincent J. Russo & Associates. He is a frequent speaker on elder and special needs law topics.